Stairway To Knowledge

In the fall of 1946, sixty bright-eyed children, with strong determination and eagerness, began their climb up the stairway to learning. Our first year was filled with both joy and tears as Miss Bebe and Mrs. Clement did their best to get us started on the right foot. Many times we stumbled on a new problem but each time there was an understanding teacher on every landing to steady our pace. With each step we began to grow in stature, wisdom, and character. As we progressed through grammar school, time began to speed by.

Soon our climb began to grow easier as high school came in sight. We were filled with anxiety that first day but soon we were engulfed in the routine of classes, dates, and ballgames. Memories began to form of Mrs. Lowe's "Honor Roll" meeting class during recess and the study hall group in Miss Willie Lou's room. It was quite an ambitious class that painted Mr. Thompson's room late in 1955.

Near the end of our climb we took on more responsibility and were proud and happy to present "A Ready Made Family", our Junior Play. Through the success of our play, under the direction of Mrs. Lutz, we donated forty dollars toward the completion of the community building.

The planning, decorating, and array of corsages helped to make the banquet the most thrilling event that had taken place.

As we rested on the last step we suddenly realized that our climb was drawing to an end. As we look back over the steps we have made, there are some we would like to erase, but the rest gives us confidence to go ahead. Our last year has been filled with joy and sadness as we realize that we, a small band of friends, will climb different stairs, each in his own way.

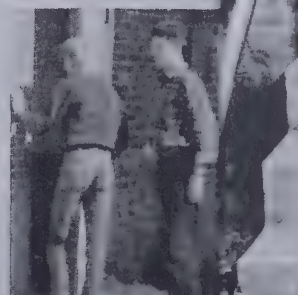

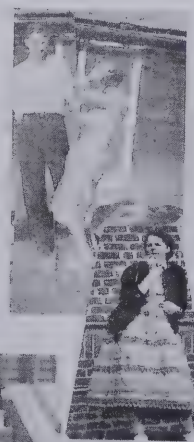

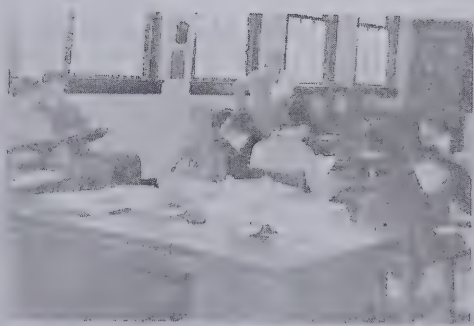

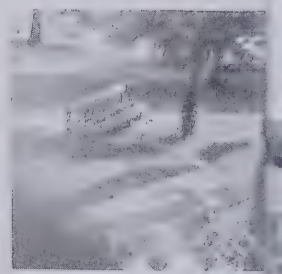

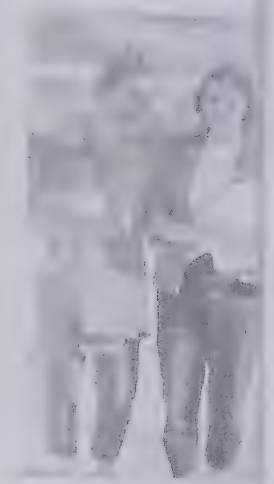

A name, a school
The red, and the white
All peoples, all religions
And the students that I meet
Mr. Foster, Mr. Frank
That's Mills River to me

The studyhall I'm in -
The classmates at my side
The home-ec room or the gym
Where my friends have laughed and cried
The right to speak my mind out
That's Mills River High to me

Chapel and exam time
The words of Miss Willie Lou -
But then the phone rings too
Typing and sewing
Mrs. Lutz and Mrs. Sue
That's Mills River to me

The cattle judging contest
The soil and Parliamentary law
The cigar Mr. John smokes
And the trips out west well-earned
Lunchtime, radios, students in the cars
No classes . . . the world series

Lines which form and reform
Lines of freshmen . . . minor frustrations
Lines of faces . . . reflecting anticipation
Lines of sophomores and of juniors
Lines of seniors waiting to receive their diplomas
Lines to classes that never end
That's Mills River to me.

Mr. Thompson, Mr. Pryor, Mr. Murray,
Glenn, Mr. Lance and Mr. Gillespie -
These names we will recognize
As the men who made us rise so early
Or if we slept a little too late
They had to give that
Old familiar "toot"
Yes, they are a part of our school days too.

Mr. Frank who makes the fires
And burns our trash
Never weary, always ready
Would you fix the radiator?
Our floor needs some spray.
Mr. Frank, you share a part
Of our Mills River days.

In one exultant band
We start for the lunchroom
For the food prepared by skillful hands of Mrs. Lola, Glenn, Margaret, and Mrs. Brittain.
Don't forget - There's a candy sale, too.
That's Mills River to me.
